

I am in full support of current limitations which prohibit a media company from owning both a TV station and newspaper in the same geographic area. Unlinked common interests are vital to ensure accurate and diverse dispersal of information.

I hope the FCC continues to serve the truth by upholding these important restrictions.